Journey to Peking: A Secret Agent in Wartime China
by Dan C. Pinck

Meet Dan Pinck and hear how he penetrated enemy territory and completed his secret Mission—alone.

He was a 19-year old volunteer for the Office of Strategic Services, and the sole American Secret Agent assigned to a remote area near Hong Kong. His mission? To gain intelligence and wage clandestine warfare along the Japanese-held coast of China. The result? Critical information Pinck gathered about troop movements and shipping led to the sinking of Japanese ships by US Forces.
